

Announcement from Kangplu Subdistrict Administrative Organization
Subject: Policy of not accepting, not giving, all kinds of gifts from performing Duties and during various festivals.
(No Gift Policy)

According to the Kangplu Subdistrict Administrative Organization has prepared an action plan to prevent corruption and has announced its intention to fight corruption, In addition the plan to reform the country, prevent and suppress corruption and misconduct (revised edition) Reform activity number 4 : Developing the Thai bureaucracy to be transparent and devoid of benefits The goal is for all government agencies to announce that all government officials will not accept gifts or any king of gratuities in the performance of their duties (No Gift Policy).

In order to create transparency within the organization, Create values of honesty in performing duties and make it a culture of the organization Kangplu Subdistrict Administrative Organization therefore announced to all administrators and officials under the Kangplu Subdistrict Administrative Organization not to Do not accept gifts, presents, including any other benefits. Both while/before/after performing duties or during various festivals and occasions to strengthen the culture of the committee to work transparently which will result in corruption and misconduct.

Therefore, it is announced for everyone to Khaw.

Announced on 1 November 2023

Acting Lt.

(Anulak Poonnoi)

President of Kangplu Subdistrict Administrative Organization

No Gift Policy Awareness Training Meeting

February 12, 2024 at 09:30 a.m.

At the meeting room of the Kangplu Subdistrict Administrative Organization,
Non Thai District, Nakhon Ratchasima Province

